Florence, July 21.

THE 15th Instant arrived at Legborne the Saphir, and Briſtol, from Tunis, bringing from thence the Moneys and Goods recovered of the Turkey ſhip that was loſt many Months ſince on that Coaſt. From Turin we hear that the Duke of Savoy has been ſo ill that they feared his Life, but that he was much better, his Feaver being in great meaſure abated. The Governour of Milan has lately received a ſupply of 95 thouſand Crowns from Spain, 50000 from Sicily, and 30000 from Naples, which with the 120 thouſand his Excellency received ſome Months ſince, are to be employed towards the erecting of Magazines, the fortifying ſeveral places, and for other publick Services. The King of Spain has conſented that the Pope ſhall diſpoſe of the Eccleſiaſtical Tenths in the State of Milan to the Emperor, to be employed in the War againſt the Rebels of Hungary. From Rome they write, That a Congregation had been held there about the Regality, but that it was not known what they had done.

Vienna, Aug. 2. Yeſterday paſſed by this place ſix Companies of Huſſars, in their way to Hungary, whither the Imperial Troops continue to march with all imaginable diligence; our laſt Letters from thoſe parts, which arrived two days ſince, gave an account, That the Hungarian Rebels had ſurprized the Cittadel of Caſchaw, and put the Imperial Soldiers that were in Gariſon there to the Sword; and that they now attacked the Town, which the Governor hoped he ſhould be able to defend. We are likewiſe informed that the Turks are on their March to joyn the Hungarians, and that there has been a very ſharp Rencounter between the Imperialiſts and ſome of the Turkiſh Parties. In the mean time we are told that the Demands that have been made to Count Caprara, the Emperor's Miniſter at Conſtantinople, which are, That 600 thouſand Florins be paid yearly to the Port; That the Hungarian Rebels be pardoned, and their Eſtates reſtored; That Leopoliſtads be razed; That the Turkiſh Frontiers be extended as far as Tranſchin; and laſtly, That all the Country on the other ſide the River Theis be yielded to the Grand Signior, have been debated in the Emperor's Council, and that his Imperial Majeſty has reſolved to give the Turks, by way of Donative, 600 thouſand Florins, and 30 thouſand yearly, and to pardon the Hungarians upon their ſubmiſſion; but for the other Articles, that they were wholly rejected, as diſhonourable and which ought never to be conſented to. Count Leſlie is gone for Germany, and has particular Orders to viſit Coſnitz, Villingen, Rheinfelden, Offenburg, and Philipsburg, and to ſee that things there be in the poſture they ought to be; and we are told that the Imperial Troops that are Quartered in Tirol, have Orders to march towards the Empire, and that the Emperor intends to remove with the whole Court to Prague, in Bohemia, and to paſs ſome time there.

Hamburg, Aug 4. From Vienna we have advice, That the Ceſſation of Arms between the Imperialiſts and the Rebels in Hungary being expired, Hoſtilities begin again; That Count Teckeley is with ſix or ſeven thouſand Men near Ferentz, and has Summoned the City of Caſchau to render themſelves to him, threatning otherwiſe to put them all to the Sword; That 15000 Sacks of Corn were ſent to Zatmar, for the Subſiſtence of that Gariſon; That the Duke of Lorrain, having recovered his Health, had offered the Emperor his Service in Hungary; That Count Caprara's laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, gave an account, That having declared his Commiſſion to the Grand Signior, viz. That the Emperor deſired to live in Peace with the Port, he was Anſwered, That Peace being the thing which all Nations upon Earth do the moſt deſire, the Grand Signior would never refuſe it: That thereupon he had had a Conference with the Aga of the Janizaries, (who was appointed to Treat with him) and was told by him, That to maintain the Peace, it would be neceſſary that the Emperor ſhould pardon the Hungarians, and reſtore all their confiſcated Eſtates: That Leopoliſtadt, which was built without the conſent of the Port, be razed: That the Turkiſh Limits be extended to Trenchin; and that all the Lands ſituate on the other ſide of the River Theis, be yeilded to the Port. That the Aga had asked Count Caprara whether he had Inſtructions to Treat about theſe Points, and if he had not, had wiſhed him to ſend immediately to Vienna about it.

Hague, Aug. 14. The Spaniſh Miniſter here has by a Memorial acquainted the States General, That the Marquiſs de Grana, Governor of the Spaniſh-Netherlands, has received Orders from Madrid to make a ſtrict Enquiry what Lands and Eſtates the Subjects of France have within the Spaniſh Territories, and to proceed againſt them by way of Reprizals, for the Confiſcations that have been made of the Eſtates which the Subjects of Spain have in the French Conqueſts. The French Ambaſſador has demanded a publick Audience of the States-General, to give them a formal Notification of the Birth of the young Duke of Burgundy; and he was to have had it yeſterday, but it was put off by reaſon his Excellency pretends to be received with ſome new Reſpects that have never yet been practiced on like occaſions. It's ſaid that the Provinces of Frizeland and Groningen are not very well ſatisfied with the Anſwer given to the Sieur Dieſt, the Brandenburg Miniſter, upon his late Memorial.

Paris, Aug. 9. On the ſeventh Inſtant Te Deum was Sung in the Chappel of the Caſtle of Verſailles, for the Birth of the young Duke of Burgundy, at which the King, the Dauphin, and all the Princes of the Blood at Court aſſiſted. The next day Te Deum was Sung here in the Church of Noſtre-Dame, the Chancellor of France, with the Council, the Parlement, the Chamber of Accompts, the Court of Aydes, and the Magiſtrates of this City, as likewiſe the Ambaſſadors, and other Foreign Miniſters, aſſiſting
